a revolution in business methods that was bound to have a good effect on the world in general, and that selfishness had ceased to play a leading part in business and social life.

The lighter part of the program was furnished by Misses Vivian Perez and Heloise Bowman, who gave several delightful numbers. Miss Perez gave a reading of a Jewish saleslady in a cloak store, and Miss Bowman rendered two songs, one of which she accompanied with a dance that pleased the aesthetic taste of the Lions.

The above program, with the around the table talk and the compliments of the season extended between members, made the meeting quite a pleasant and profitable one. This was the first meeting since December 17.

JOSEPH W. BRUMFIELD PURCHASES CUDABAC HOME

J. W. Brumfield, one of the progressive merchants of the city, has purchased from H. D. Cudabac, the former home of the Cudabacs at 520 Lincoln avenue. The home is a fine two-story house on a wide street, and Mr. Brumfield is to be congratulated on acquiring same.

Mr. and Mrs. Brumfield moved into their new home yesterday, thus making a good move for the beginning of the New Year.

Mr. Cudabac and family some months ago moved to Jackson, Miss., but will in the near future be located in Alexandria, La.

MUCH OF INTEREST AND IMPORT HAPPENED HERE DURING 1929

Chronological Review of Events During Past Year, As Recorded in Chronicle-Star, Compiled for Benefit of Its Readers.

During the year just past, many things of interest happened in and around Pascagoula, and were recorded in the columns of the Chronicle-Star. For benefit of its readers the Chronicle-Star has compiled a list of the more important happenings of the year, and herewith presents them to the public as an epitome of the history of this city during 1929.

There have been no great outstanding events recorded, but just the everyday happenings of a community that has been fairly busy during the year, and has had its share of the ups and downs of life. On the other hand, Pascagoula has been singularly free from those accidents, disasters and untoward happenings that have fallen to

The Central Parent-Teacher Association held a brilliant reception to the several college boys and girls who were home for the holidays on last Friday night at the Community House.

The senior class of the Pascagoula High School entertained the guests with an appropriate program. The reception is an annual affair given for the college set and is a bright spot of the holidays for them.

Refreshments were served to about fifty-five young men and women. The president of the Central P. T. A., Mrs. Eugene Beckham, was assisted by Mesdames B. P. Russum, Louise Rachard, Woodard, W. J. Colle, Alice Hull and J. A. Pelham; Misses Marie Rourke and Murine McInnis; and Capt. W. J. Colle.

Notre Dame

My friend (who isn't named Irma but might well be) was out riding recently when she decided she would like to go to the movies. Passing the local theater she glimpsed the words "Notre Dame" in the title of the current picture. "Stop here," she told her companion, "this ought to be a good football picture." After the show she said, "You know, there wasn't a bit of football in that picture. It was all about some old hunch-back man."

On Television

Miss Dorothy Mitchell, who had the leading role in an opera recently produced by the school of music at Ole Miss will appear on television Saturday when the opera is broadcast from Memphis.

Stage Sets

The attractive stage sets in the kindergarten operetta were from the talented brush of Ida Belle Bullock. Especially good was the habitation of the old lady-who-lived-in-a-shoe. With a roll of paper and a few jars of paint she can transform the barest stage, in addition to teaching the first graders at Charlotte Hyatt their three Rs.

Heredity

Charlie and George Chappell, two young sons of the Rev. and Mrs. William Chappell, were both born in the Belgian Congo and have spent most of their young lives there. This is their second visit to the States, but the other afternoon they were romping on their grandmother's lawn and George announced, "We're playing cowboy." Wonder how youngsters in Africa learn about Hop-along Cassidy. Television or comic books?

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huff, Laurel, drove down Sunday for the day and attended the baccalaureate services. Their niece Gwen Everett was one of the graduates. Walter Everett, Ellisville, accompanied them and stayed for a visit.

Among spectators at the kindergarten operetta Friday was Mrs. P. S. Richardson, Bolton, who came to see her grandson Joe Bullock as King Cole. Mrs. M. J. Bullock and children accompanied her home Thursday and will stay for a visit.

Home On Visit

Miss Annie Margaret Wright, Tulsa, arrived Tuesday to spend the week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright.

Bob McIntosh, who has been home on leave, left Thursday to return to Fort Bliss.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hase and Mr. and Mrs. Owen DeAngelo and children spent Friday at Gulf Shores.

Weekenders were Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Hobdy and children, Natchez, who visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hobdy and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Martinez.

Mrs. R. C. Eley and Miss Ada Bond are expected home today after attending the federated club convention. Miss Bond is president of the Fortnightly Club.

Graduates With Honors

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Slyfield attended baccalaureate services and graduation at Mississippi Southern College Sunday. Shannon Slyfield finished cum laude with a bachelor's degree in music education. W. M. Dutton accompanied them to the commencement program and visited his son Bob. Shannon returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Franklin left Thursday for Stephens College where Miss Pollye Franklin is a member of the graduating class. Mrs. Franklin has been asked to pour at one of the teas during commencement activities. Also leaving Thursday were the Charles Armisteads, whose daughter Joyce is also a member of the
